

SPORT LISBOA BENFICA SEEN THROUGH THE ILLUSTRATED POSTCARDS (DELTIOLOGY)

INTRODUCTION ABOUT ITS HISTORY

Sport Lisboa e Benfica was founded on 28 February 1904 by a group of former students of the Royal Casa Pia de Lisboa. The "Eagle" is the main symbol of the emblem. Under the Eagle, in its grip, is the shield and a banner with the motto "E Pluribus Unum" (one for all and all for one). This motto was chosen by Félix Bermudes meaning Union and the family spirit that has always characterized the Club since its foundation to the present day.

Is a Multisport Club, based in Lisbon, and its eclectic and history is a strong base of supporters who make Benfica the biggest and most significant Club of Portugal and one of the most prestigious in the world.

Sport Lisboa e Benfica has been one of the great responsible for dissemination of Portugal at international level, being a very important milestone in sports and social life of this country and, as a public Institution, is a club that is at the service of society.

Regardless of the sports plan Sport Lisboa e Benfica, the 27 January 2009 "the BENFICA FOUNDATION", having been recognized, 14 January 2010, by the Portuguese Government, as private Social solidarity Institution and as a Collective Person of public utility.

In July 23rd 2013 Sport Lisboa e Benfica opened the Museum Benfica-Cosme Damião, dedicated to the history of the Club which is located outside the stadium of light. In December 2014 the Museum was awarded the Portuguese Museum Prize awarded by Associação Portuguesa de Museology.
